These brutes are akin to orcs, but larger. They are fiercely stupid, but do possess some faculty of reason. Like all the intelligent races, they have a great greed for gold. Ogres are bullies, but also cowards, and will run if a fight turns against them.

Ogre Lords:

Although ogres have no true martial order, the largest and meanest call themselves lords. If they differ from normal ogres, it is only in their size and strength. Given that they are ogres, this is no small worry. Ogre lords have been known to kill with one swipe of their massive club.
